WOMAN HELD AT HONOLULU IN CONNECTION WITH DEATHS OF 4 HUSBANDS; AGREES TO RETURN

HONOLULU, T. H., May 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Paul Vincent Southard, also known as Mrs. Lydia Meyer, was held by the police here today on orders from Los Angeles in connection with the death of four of her husbands, a brother-in-law and a child of one of the men she married.

Paul Southard, whom she married in Los Angeles last November, told the police here she tried to get him to take out $10,000 worth of life insurance. Southard is a petty officer on the U. S. S. Monterey, stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. Insurance of which she was the beneficiary was carried on the lives of all the five men whose deaths are being investigated.

Mrs. Southard, according to the police, has agreed to return without extradition. Papers for extradition are being prepared.

Warning Is Cabled

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, May 12.—Operatives of the sheriff's office here tonight cabled to Honolulu authorities to guard Mrs. Lydia Southard, under arrest here for alleged responsibility for the deaths of four husbands, a brother-in-law and her baby, against possible attempt to take her own life. Sheriff E. R. Sherman left here tonight for Boise, where tomorrow he will seek extradition papers from Governor Davis for Mrs. Southard's return to Twin Falls.

Diamond Furnishes Clue

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—The arrest at Honolulu today of Mrs. Lydia Meyer Southard and who is charged with murdering her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, at Twin Falls, Idaho, was the outgrowth of the theft of a diamond, with suspicion pointing at the woman, it was stated here today by V. H. Ormsby, a deputy sheriff of Twin Falls. Ormsby, who came here three weeks ago searching for Mrs. Southard said details of the charges concerning the diamond were in the possession of Frank Stephen, prosecuting attorney at Twin Falls.

The deputy sheriff said information that Mrs. Southard had come to Los Angeles from Twin Falls was supplied by Mrs. Mary James, of Idaho City, who was said to have obtained employment here for the suspected woman and to have lived with her for a time in Los Angeles.

Shortly after he arrived here, Ormsby said, he learned the woman, then known to him as Mrs. Meyer, had married Paul Vincent Southard, chief petty officer on the U. S. S. Monterey, now in Hawaiian waters, and had come to Honolulu with him.

Ormsby said he had called to Southard asking if he "ever knew a woman named Lydia Meyer," and had received in answer a denial that Southard had known a woman of that name, but had known "an Ida Meyer, a school teacher in the east."

There is no charge against the woman here, Ormsby, when he cabled the Honolulu authorities, asking that she be arrested, gave his temporary address as the "Sheriff's office, Los Angeles."

The Idaho officer said he would leave soon for San Francisco, where his wife, also a deputy sheriff, would join him and they would go together to Honolulu to take Mrs. Southard back to Twin Falls.

By

Jeanie Macpherson

The intimate life of a woman who thought she knew what love is. Until loving led to hate, and then —

The rest is something never portrayed till now in a motion picture!

An attraction as different from all that DeMille has done before as his "Why Change Your Wife?" was different from the first screen drama. Luxury, beauty, fashion, allurements, as only DeMille knows how. But something more!
